Special Report on the Masquerade

The masquerade this year was fantastic. The novices did not act like this was their first time and the veteran costumers clearly went all out. It was a delight to see the show start on time. We were let in at just about 5:30p and the spectacle began at 6p. The low quantity was more than made up for in quality. The seven entries were the pinnacle of craftsmanship and were presented with flourish. The display entry, "Destination Libation," received the awe it deserved and the journeyman class entry, "Which Monkey?" got the laugh it intended. Overall, the audience seemed to find this a most enjoyable masquerade.
